Letter from the President

Ladies of the Brush

April showers bring May flowers. But first it brings us our seminar. There are still openings available, so if you have not signed up this will be your last chance. Georgia Strein is taking the registration, so get with her soon.

Palm Coast is responsible for the food on Friday the 1st, and our Hospitality Chair Noreen Walker has prepared a menu. The meal is included in your registration fee.

We look forward to meeting Kathy Swigon, our seminar leader. Kathy will be coming from Tampa. She is a past president of SDP and experienced in teaching, so we can learn a lot from her.

Our Ways and Means Chair Kathy will be going north for the summer months and we need someone to fill for her until she returns in the fall. The monthly raffles are important as we use the income to pay the rent on the Woman's Club. Please consider volunteering for this position for the summer.

Happy painting,

Lee

Letter from the 1st Vice President

Hi Ladies –

Thanks so much for helping us paint the lovely 'Abstract Sunflowers' watercolor, Paula. I know we are all enjoying learning more about using watercolors and the different techniques involved. With your help, we are continuing to build our watercolor skills. Thanks a bunch.

This year our 2-day Seminar (sponsored jointly by Seaside Decorative Painters and Palm Coast Decorative Painters) features Kathy Swigon. This Seminar is scheduled for Friday, April 1st, and Saturday, April 2nd at the Flagler Women's Club in Flagler Beach. The Seminar fee is $40 for 1-day and $75 for both days, plus a $6 supply fee for the Bell Pull. (Note: an additional fee of $5 for non-members applies.) Lunch and breakfast snacks are included for both days.

On Friday, we will be painting the 'Bell Pull' (designed especially for our Seminar) and the 'Berries & Bird Box' on Saturday. This is the only Seminar planned for this year. Ladies, let's make it a success! There is still some time to sign-up and get the minimal prep work done. Please contact Georgia Strein ASAP to make your Seminar reservations.

Our workshop scheduled for May 7th is 'Non-traditional Strokework', taught by Lee Fasnacht. This is a very unique project that is painted on an unusual surface – a rolling pin – but the design can easily be adapted to many other surfaces. With your creativity, I'm sure you'll be anxious to try your hand with this one! Don't miss it! I can't wait to see what happens with this one!

Sign-ups for all of these Workshops are now being taken. You can always contact me by email (rcm0335@gmail.com) or phone (386-447-1923), if you have any questions.

Palm Coast Decorative Painters Chapter Meeting Minutes
Saturday, March 5, 2022
Flagler Women's Cub, Flagler Beach, FL

President Lee Fasnacht called the meeting to order at 9:05.

1st VP Ruth McDonald stated that there are 24 members taking the watercolor workshop today. May and June's class signup sheets are on the back table. We are still looking for accommodations for June's teacher, Pat Smelkoff, for two nights. Please let Ruth know if you can help with this. April seminar bell pulls have not arrived yet. The instructions for the boxes are available.

2nd VP Lynn Rankin gave her report on membership. We now have 37 members. Two new members.

Treasurer Lana Raymond gave the financial report.

Hostess Noreen Walker talked about the seminar in April. Please get with her about signing up to bring something for this. She also needs volunteers to bring snacks to the May workshop.

Ways & Means Kathy Lamb organized the raffle today and we took in a total of $95.00.

Newsletter Georgia Strein needs all articles for the newsletter by the 18th of the month. After the seminar in April she will need articles ASAP.

New Business:

Seaside Chapter sponsors painting wig forms for Charlene's Dream. Some from our Chapter have painted a few of these to donate. We received a card from Charlene's Dream thanking us for our contribution of painted wig head forms.

Lana reported on our charity – Kid's Are 1st. She delivered 45 boxes to them. Keep looking for an article in the Decorative Painter about our part in donating painted boxes to this charity. Lana has been talking to the manager to try and get an article printed in the Observer paper. Pictures were taken of some of the boxes and volunteers to add to the article. She will keep us informed about the progress.

Old Business:

Kathy & Lana reported on the Fashion Show at Chez Jacqueline's. Wednesday, May 11th from 5:00 to 7:00. We are limited to 35 tickets and already we have 18. Fliers were distributed by Lana to sell tickets. They are putting together 3 baskets to raffle off at this event. Donations are needed to put into these baskets. We also need small door prizes. This is our only fund raiser so please see Lana or Kathy if you can help with any of these items.

Show & Tell produced 4 painted boxes for Kid's r First and 1 painted wig form for Charlene's Dream. There was also a painted apron to put into the wine basket for the raffle at Chez Jacqueline's.

Meeting was adjourned at 9:31

Submitted by Jo Ann Bailey, Secretary

Chez Jacqueline Fashion Show

We are having a lot of interest in our Fashion Show scheduled for May 11th. The flyer is included in this newsletter with all of the pertinent information.

Our raffle baskets are coming along nicely. We have rum basket, a wine basket and a chocolate basket. We need your help to make them especially nice to raise more money for the Chapter. Some items that we could use are chocolates, hot chocolate, chocolate covered pretzels, candy dish, fancy crackers, cheese spreaders, kitchen towels, placemats, bread sticks, gourmet or any flavor of coffee.

We also need several small items to use as door prizes. These items can be painted or do not have to be painted.

We appreciate your help.

Ladies:

Forty-five boxes were delivered to Guardian ad litem on February 22, 2022. The ladies in the advocacy office were absolutely thrilled with all of the beautiful boxes. There were smiles from them when they saw the school supplies and toys we donated to the kids.

I submitted an article to the Observer to bring awareness of our Chapter and our Kids R First Program. I will let you know if I hear back from the Observer Editor with confirmation or with a copy of the article.

Thank you so much Lynn, Kathy, Cindy, Betty, Doris and Barbara for the boxes appearing in the newsletter.
