Letter from the President

Ladies of the Brush:

Hope everyone is staying cool. I am not venturing out much because it is just too hot.

I missed you all last month while I was recuperating from surgery. I want to thank Ruth for stepping in and doing double duty.

Time for be thinking about submitting some projects to teach next year. The teacher submission form has been revised and will be sent to everyone.

Don't forget lunch will be served by Chef Noreen for just $5.00.

Bring some extra money for our monthly raffle. We have some nice items to include in the raffle.

Lee Fasnacht

Letter from the 1st Vice President

Hi Ladies –

I hope you enjoyed painting the 'Driftwood Beach Scene'. Paula sure delivered on her promise to teach us some new things. One of my table partners said using watercolors wasn't her favorite but, by the end of the class, she had finished 2 paintings and said she really liked using watercolors. Thanks for a great class Paula!

For our August project Cheri Bergquist will help us begin thinking about the holidays – just to cool off a bit. 'Dasher the Reindeer' is sure to please everyone. Painting surfaces are available for $3. Dawn Carleton's husband was so inspired when he saw Dasher's picture that his creative juices really began to flow. Just wait until you see what he did!

In our September class, we will be working on a Halloween project – a 'Halloween Gourd' taught by Ann Hedberg. This is a double-sided project. Ann believes you can probably finish both sides in class, so be sure to prep both sides. Gourds will be available at the August meeting for only $5 each.

At our August meeting, I'll be asked for your input for future painting projects and preferred mediums to help our teachers plan for future classes. So, please be prepared to share your thoughts and opinions. We appreciate your help and suggestions.

We will begin accepting 2023 submissions on September 1st, with a deadline of October 15th. The teacher's submission form is currently being updated and will be sent to everyone separately and will also be included in the September Newsletter.

Our July luncheon menu will feature 'Roasted Pork Loin w/apple topping and Assorted Vegetables for $5.

Sign-ups for all of these Workshops are now being taken. You can always contact me by email (rcm0335@gmail.com) or phone (386-447-1923), if you have any questions.

I hope you are all having a great summer! See you at our next class on August 6th, if not before.

KIDS R FIRST

Ladies:

On June 23, Noreen and I met at the courthouse to deliver boxes and miscellaneous toys, school supplies, etc., to Guardian ad litem for the foster children. We delivered 62 boxes! That makes a total of 107 in 2022, including the 45 boxes delivered in February this year. Noreen donated several large bags of items to fill the kids' boxes with. We are having such great year for the kids. In this newsletter I have four boxes painted by Lynn Rankin. This make 26 boxes Lynn has painted this year!

Let's keep it up!

Lana

Note From Your Newsletter Editor

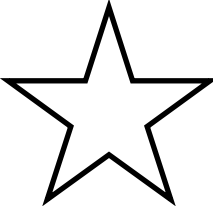

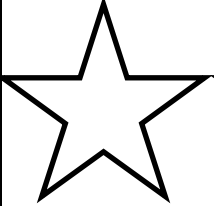

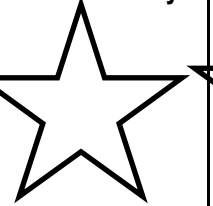

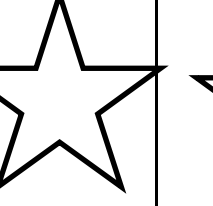

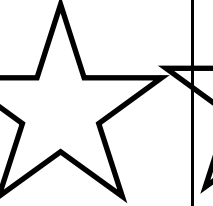

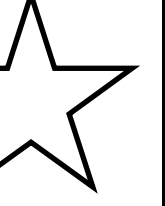

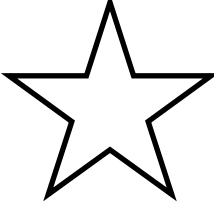

As most of you know I am in Chios, Greece for the summer. I discovered a new place downtown (the port city of Chios). It's a DIY (Do It Yourself) café that you can go to for a drink and snacks and bring your paints, brushes, etc and paint. They have many boxes and other surfaces for sale and they also have Chalk paint. It would be nice if there was a place like that in the Flagler/Volusia area.

See you in October and enjoy the summer.

Palm Coast Decorative Painters (PCDP) is a non-profit, affiliated chapter of the Society of Decorative Painters. A monthly meeting, followed by a painting workshop, is held the first Saturday of each month (usually) at the Flagler Women's club, 1524 S. Central Avenue, Flagler Beach. Business meetings start at 9:00 a.m. followed by the scheduled workshop/seminar. All levels of painters are welcome to any of the meetings. Check out our website (updated at the end of each month):
