Letter from the President

Ladies of the Brush

I hope you are looking forward to our workshop this month. I always enjoy Cheri's projects. Especially this one with no prep.

Lunch will be served as usual for the cost of $5.00. Our wonderful Noreen has taken over the lunch preparations so you have some wonderful meals to look forward to. Ruth will let you know what the menu is each month. Noreen has some nice meals planned and I for one will enjoy them since I am not the one making them.

We have some new members who are some wonderful additions to the members we already have. Our membership is growing and our workshops are filling up. I am so excited and proud of our chapter.

The seminar is scheduled for 1 and 2 April. Since we are doing the seminar in conjunction with the Seaside Decorative Painters we are able to offer it to our Palm Coast members for $40.00 a day or $65.00 for both days. There will be an additional cost of $6.00 for the bell pull which we will get from Kathy Swignon, our seminar teacher. She will mail them to me in advance with the base color paint so that they can be base coated before the seminar. The registration form is in this this newsletter. Don't delay signing up as we are limited to space since we will be using the Flagler Woman's Club instead of Plantation Oaks that we previously used.

Letter from the 1st Vice President

Hi Ladies, –

In January, Alise Duerr taught us to paint the '3-D Starfish', which is the companion piece to the '3-D Seashells' we painted last May. We had a full class and most of us were able to almost finish – except for completing the bubbles in the foam. It really looks pretty when finished but the bubbles sure were a test of patience. Alise, thanks for another great class!

On February 5th, we will be inking the 'Seagull', taught by Cheri Bergquist. There is no prep work for this class and all you need are Micron Pens (#.005, .01, .08) and a small round or flat brush to apply the tints. There is a $2 supply fee to cover the cost of the paper that will be prepared with the pattern already applied and the water- colors. (Watercolor washes can be added after the piece is completed if you choose to do so.) This is a fun and EASY class and no need to haul a ton of supplies. Ladies, we only have a few seats left, so please contact me ASAP by phone or email.

In March, we will be painting 'Abstract Sunflowers'. This a lovely watercolor taught by Paula Tormey. Paula comments that, "The final step after you have painted what you think is finished, is reviewing your final piece and then actually finishing it!" Paula will be providing the watercolor paints and Designer Gouache. This is a great opportunity to continue developing your watercolor skills.

The lunch menu for February will be a Roasted Vegetable Plate w/Rice and Crusty Bread for $5.

Sign-ups for all of these Workshops are now being taken. You can always contact me by email (rcm0335@gmail.com) or phone (386-447-1923), if you have any questions.

See you on February 5th!

Palm Coast Decorative Painters Chapter Meeting Minutes
Saturday, January 8, 2022
Flagler Women's Club, Flagler Beach, FL

The meeting was called to order at 9:04 by president Lee Fasnacht.

President Lee Fasnacht discussed how the Open Art Wednesdays have helped with obtaining new members for our chapter. Visiting teacher, Pat Smelkoff, needs lodging for the 2 days she will be here in June to teach June's workshop.

1st VP Ruth McDonald stated that we have 22 members painting at today's workshop with Alise. There are already 20 signed up for the workshop in February. Ruth has asked that when you sign up for a workshop would you please state whether you want lunch that day. This helps with the amount of food needed to be prepared.

2nd VP Lynn Rankin reported that we now have 32 chapter members.

Treasurer Lana Raymond gave the treasurer's report stating that rent has been paid for 6 months and the liability insurance has also been paid.

Newsletter Georgia Strein needs all articles for the newsletter to her by the 18th of the month.

Ways & Means Kathy Lamb announced that we collected $90.00 in today's raffle. A photo printer was donated by Ruth McDonald. It was raffled and brought in $35.00.

Hospitality Noreen Walker has volunteered to take on this responsibility from Nedra Lyman. Nedra has been wonderful getting everything ready for our meetings for quite a while. She can now relax and enjoy her time during meetings with Noreen taking this job.
