Volume 3 Issue 1

January 2025

Letter from the President

Dear Members,

Due to family illness, I need to take step down as your President. As most of you know, my husband has Parkinson's disease. We are going to doctor appointments regularly in Palm Coast, Ormond, Daytona Beach, St. Augustine and now we have visits and tests in Jacksonville. Also, my younger son is having some serious health problems. My focus will be on my family. I will still be a very active part of the club. Ruth McDonald has agreed to fill in as President temporarily until someone offers to take the position. Diane Foreman has also agreed to help out or serve temporarily. I sincerely appreciate everyone's support.

I enjoyed every meeting, class, get-together we had in 2024. It was a good year for Palm Coast Decorative Artists.

Now we can look forward to 2025 with new projects using mixed media, watercolor, colored pencils, acrylic paint and a gel printing plate. How much more diverse could our future classes be? Thank you to all of the teachers who share their talent and knowledge with us.

I wish you a happy and healthy New Year!

Lana Raymond

Letter from the 1st Vice President

I'm so excited to be working with all of you! The Board has picked some great workshops and seminars for us this coming year.

January - color pencil taught by Alise Duerr. Bring your pencils Alise will have pencils for sale. Let her know what colors you need.

February - one day seminar watercolor and mix media by Lisa Fox.

March - Cindy Makowski is back with the 'Light Shines Through' – acrylics.

April - Paula Tormey is teaching 8 mini-watercolors.

May - we have a watercolor mix media original by Lisa Fox.

June - we have a fun pen and ink snowman by Cheri Bergquist.

And that's just the first half of the year!

WOW – and there's so much more to come...

Ruth has performed a fantastic job as First VP and so I have some big shoes to fill, so please bear with me.

If anyone should need to reach me, you can always call me at 386-293-6733 or email me: lbfoxmd@comcast.net.

Happy & Healthy New Year.

Lisa
