Letter from the President

Ladies of the Brush

We had a wonderful time at our seminar with Kathy Swigon. The projects turned out beautiful. I for one am glad I attended. I was sorry to see such a small attendance. I hope to see more people attend our seminar next year.

We had a wonderful lunch on Friday (actually both days) prepared by our hostess Noreen. She is a wonderful person and extremely organized when it comes to preparing such delicious food. Thank you Noreen.

Our fashion show scheduled for May is sold out. Thanks to all who purchased a ticket. This is our only fund raiser for the year and it is a fun event. Special thanks to Chez Jacqueline for sharing their talents with us. Can't wait to see our models in the fashions.

Lee Fasnacht

Letter from the 1st Vice President

Hi Ladies –

I hope everyone enjoyed painting with Kathy Swigon. The bell pull had some very interesting aspects – it wasn't as simple as it looked. And, what about those iridescent metallic we used! The faux finish on the box was interesting and I'll be using that one again. Although I wasn't able to finish my box, I'll have a nice gift box for someone when it's done.

Our workshop scheduled for May 7th is 'Non-traditional Strokework', taught by Lee Fasnacht. This is a very unique project that is painted on an unusual surface – a rolling pin – but the design can easily be adapted to many other surfaces. I believe it would look great on a box lid or a picture frame. With your creativity, I'm sure you'll be anxious to try your hand with this one.

In June, we will be painting 'Mr. Pelican' taught by Pat Smelkoff. For those of you who don't know Pat, she is one of our past Presidents, a published author of painting books and many magazine articles, and a very experienced teacher. I believe we will all learn something new from Pat and also painting this project.

Sign-ups for all of these Workshops are now being taken. You can always contact me by email (rcm0335@gmail.com) or phone (386-447-1923), if you have any questions.

See you at our May 7th class, if not before.

Chez Jacqueline Fashion Show

Hi Ladies,

We sold ALL of our seats to the Fashion Show on May 11th. Get ready for a lot of laughs. It's going to be a fun evening had by all.

We collected a lot of items for the gifts baskets and door prizes. We could still use cheese and fancy crackers, fancy cookies and candy. If anyone wants to make a donation, we would really appreciate it.

Thank you.

DECORATIVE PAINTERS GROUP HELPS FOSTER CHILDREN

Each year for the past 20 years, the Palm Coast Decorative Painters have provided painted photo boxes to the foster children, from infants to 18-year-olds, of Flagler County. The boxes are distributed by Guardian ad Litem. In 2021, the group delivered 163 boxes to GAL.

The group provides the boxes, which contain donated personal items such as toys, note pads, crayons and socks, to the members, and each member chooses the design, paints the boxes at their home or at group get-togethers.

The boxes are given to the children when they are placed in a foster home.

"Sometimes, these boxes and the contents are the only things the children have," wrote Lana Raymond, chair of the painting group.

Meetings are held at 9 a.m. the first Saturday of every month (unless it's a holiday) at the Flagler Woman's Club, 1524 S. Central Ave., Flagler Beach. For samples of upcoming classes, visit palm-coastdecorativepainters.com.

Ladies:

The article submitted to the Observer was in the March 24th issue. A copy of the article is in the newsletter.

We have more beautiful boxes painted for the kids: An angel, hot chicks and Americana watermelon from Sherry Sierks; two ballerinas and Santa and Rudolph plotting the route from Jane Van Buren; and a happy turtle from Kathy Lamb.

Thank you everyone for your support of our kids.

Georgia, I hope you have a wonderful time in Greece and we will miss you!

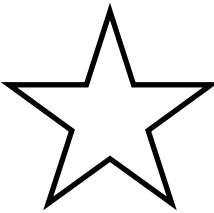

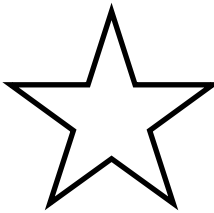

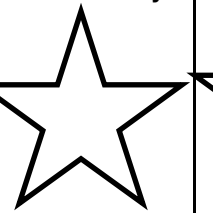

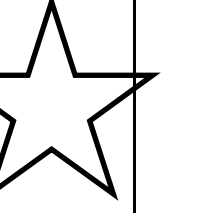

Lana
