Letter from the President

Ladies of the Brush:

The August meeting was an experience since I still cannot hear. Breaking in the cochlear now, but it is slow moving. I want to thank everyone putting up with me and making sure I heard what was going on.

I want to thank Judy Hannelotter for taking minutes and Noreen Walker for assisting her.

We have a Christmas Party committee consisting of Noreen, Diane Forman and Debbi Lynn. Should be a great party!

A nominating committee was appointed so please think about stepping up to serve on the board or for any other duty. We are not getting any younger, so we need all the help we can get.

I will miss the September meeting as we are making a trip to Nebraska to visit our son and family. The most important one to see is our 5 year old grandson. Have not seen him in two years, except for Facetime.

Happy painting! See you at the October meeting.

Lee

Letter from the 1st Vice President

Hi Ladies,

Oh, what a great project 'Dasher' was! He is so-o-o cute, but, I think, he had to share the spotlight with the hand-carved 'Dasher' Dawn Carlton's husband carved. Thanks for sharing him with us Dawn. Cheri, thanks for another great project.

In our September class, we will be working on a Halloween project – a 'Halloween Gourd' taught by Ann Hedberg. This is a double-sided gourd and we will be working on both sides. I still have a few more gourds available. If you need one, just give me a call. It's not too late to enroll – a few spaces still available. Also, remember we will be meeting on Saturday, Sept 10th due to the Labor Day Holliday.

In October and November we will be turning our attention to Christmas. IN October, Lee Fasnacht will be teaching the 'Around the World' project. In November, Alise Duerr will be teaching the 'Snowman with Lights.' These are both really cute projects and will make nice additions to your holiday décor.

In November, the class will be held on the Second Saturday of the month because the Woman's Club will be holding their annual sale on the first week-end of the month.

If you haven't returned your Workshop Questionnaire, please send your comments to me or turn them in during our September meeting. Please don't forget to complete it because we really need your input

We will begin accepting 2023 submissions on September 1st, with a deadline of October 15th. (The teacher's submission form is included with this newsletter.) We hope each of you will consider teaching a class. We are all looking forward to having you share your talents with us and having a year filled with really interesting projects. Thanks so much for your support! Selection of our 2023 projects will take place at our November meeting.

Palm Coast Decorative Painter Chapter Meeting Minutes –August 6, 2022

Lee convened meeting at 9:00. Welcomed Carlene from SDP as guest.

Dawn displayed impressive moose figures based on today's painting that her husband had carved and painted.

All encouraged to take many free donated books and items.

Ruth reported 18 attendees today. She has been busy with several programming tasks to support member participation and satisfaction:

- Member program questionnaire. Help the chapter and presenter best provide training by indicating preferences. Return completed forms to her.
- Teacher Submission Form. Strongly encouraged those who haven't taught to do so. We have 2 and need 10 more presenters for the coming year.
- Ready to paint gourds available for $5.00 for September class.
- If paying cash to buy class materials, clip a sticky note with your name to the money so that Ruth can credit you.

Lynn reported that new member kits are being assembled. Lana has ordered more wooden name tags.

Many thanks to Judy who volunteered to be secretary. Noreen will submit typed copy.

Lana reported checking account balance.

Debbie, Diane and Noreen will do holiday hospitality. Will be asking for contributions and help as date nears.

Georgia needs newsletter items by August 18th.

Nedra is assuming Joanne's duties as she recuperates. Collective good wishes to Joanne.

Nominating Committee is Paula, Joyce and Noreen. The Chapter is able to provide excellent instruction and impressive community support because of active member support. We need members to step up and serve in some capacity when asked.

Lee shared a painted vest she completed.

Raffle yielded $105 that will cover 2 months hall rental.

Respectfully submitted,
Noreen Walker
